Suspicious Death Investigation in Little Italy

San Diego – On Monday, July 11, 2022, at approximately 11:45 a.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received a call reporting a woman in medical distress under the I-5 freeway overpass at 500 West Grape Street. Officers from Central Division arrived at the location with paramedics and began performing lifesaving measures. Unfortunately, the woman was pronounced deceased at the scene.

The woman appeared to have visible trauma to her upper body, however officers were unable to readily establish the cause of death based on the scene. San Diego Homicide Detectives responded in an abundance of caution and began investigating the incident.

The exact cause of her death is pending complete examination and investigation.

The woman has not yet been positively identified. She is described as a Hispanic or Asian female, possibly in her 30s or 40s. She is believed to be homeless.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
